GLAM- ART

GLAMOUR DONE THE VOLO WAY!

Happy New Year VOLOnians,

I am going to adopt Sacha Leyendeckers endearing terminology for VOLO readers and fans for a moment and call you VOLOnians, the inhabitants of the world of VOLO.

I want to start with a request for you all. We need your feedback on the brand new VOLODaily.com. We spent a lot of sleepless nights on this architecture which now supports 'Single Sign-on', 'Premium Content' and introduces the all new VOLOLIVE.TV. Have you been watching? Send me your feedback and critique, we are very close to getting this right, but I am sure there are pieces you will find that will help us perfect the new platform.

Let's talk about issue 33. For 2016 we have decided to return to THEMED issues. That means every issue will be a collection of layouts of a particular type of photography/models. We start with something which is 360degrees opposite to our Dec 2015 issue, presenting the GLAM-ART 2016 issue. All the photosets in this issue are shot in the format of GLAMOUR photography (though not quite like the jaded glamour photography you find elsewhere). We would love your feedback on the issue and the concept of themes.

Also coming soon will be our collectors editions issues from 2015, the BEST OF issues are the ones you must buy in print and collect forever.

Please write back to me as your feedback is what makes VOLO great!

MICHAELA JANE

If glitter was a color it'd be my favorite. And if I could write a bio in one sentence I would end it there. To further introduce myself however I'm a bit of a reserved girl from a southern IL village. (Until the dj plays my favorite song anyway) Every where I need to go is a train ride and a flight away but I don't mind it.

Keeping work away from home gives me the gift of staying focused on what's truly important and that's my family and puppies of course. I consider this passing year to be the year that I quit "modeling" and started living. I look forward to spending 2016 working all throughout the US and to be starting it off for the first time in New York. And hopefully this year I'll be putting as many stamps in my passport as there are pages.

OUR FIRST THEMED ISSUE for 2016

Note from

SHANKHA

ENGINEER . ENTREPRENEUR . VOLO FOUNDER

A brand can never survive if it does not change, so for 2016 we are bringing back themed issues to VOLO Magazine.

Themed content will allow our readers to get more out of each issue and be able to jump back to issues on their account based on the type of art you want to enjoy.

True to my style of leading from the front, I present what I consider to be more GLAMOROUS type of nude art photography. Glamorous due to the type of lighting and posing by the model, but still having the unique VOLO Stamp of not going overboard with 'plastic like' editing made popular by some long time players.

Michaela Jane is all natural, and naturally beautiful. A mother, a model and a VOLO woman, Michaela represents the ultimate in VOLO GLAMOUR, thus earning the right to be the first set in our first GLAMOUR ART themed issue of 2016

Enjoy the images. More sets and videos featuring her are going to be released this year exclusively on VOLODaily.com

FEATURING MICHELE CHEVERE

MICHELE CHEVERE

My name is Michele Chevere and started modeling about 3 years ago. I enjoy going to the gym, traveling, and relaxing with friends and family.

I was so excited to learn I had the opportunity to shoot with great friend Anthony Neste for VOLO magazine. The shoot went quite well and Anthony is so talented and amazing to work with! Hope you guys like our work.

ANTHONY NESTE

Talks about his VOLO shoot with Michelle

Planning a shoot with Michelle was an on going quest for the last 2 years. We both were finally very excited to get something done and it was going to be published in the worlds #1 art magazine...

We really had no idea where we were going to shoot the set until I remembered this location I shot swimsuits at a few years prior. An old rusted pier that had nothing left but these columns coming out of the sand. Michelle is awesome to shoot with and she does not need much direction, just put her in the right spot, click away and enjoy watching her work. I can't wait till she gets back to Florida and to me for another round.

GOSH! talks about this shoot

“ In one of my trips to Budapest, I had the crazy idea to put two shooting sessions in one day, plus.. in the same location. It's something I learned not to do again, but that time I was lucky. The magic happened thanks to Kate and Noemi, their beauty and attitude in front the camera, translated immediately the majesty I love of Budapest. After a short chat to discuss the picturesi mood, and the great and speedy work of the MUA Eniko, we started with full of energy and we didn't stop shooting till the dust. Smooth, gorgeous and fast, the kind of shooting I like. I think there was a particular alchemy, clearly visible also in the backstage video: a short clip filmed with the GoPro running all the time on our back during the photo session.

Enjoy!”

GUENTHER ACHLEITNER

Talks about this shoot with Zoe

Zoe in the hotel room was in fact our first editorial we ever shot for VOLO Magazine and it's now our third appearance here. We are very proud of being part of VOLO yet again.

Zoe is sensual and fragile, and yet a very sporty model. In the hotel room she could display her sensuality perfectly. I tried to portray her wonderfully shaped body in a very sensible manner. We decided to go without any clothes or lingerie for most of the pictures but to show Zoe in total nudity to create this special feeling of comfort and confidence with nothing but only herself. We also spared flashes and (as almost always on location or in nature) only used the available light of the autumn sun coming through the big window of the hotel room. We played with a narrow focus and with lights and shadows to show Zoe's beauty.

We are glad to appear in VOLO Magazine again. Have fun with our third editorial guys, we hope you enjoy it.

ZoÈ

Thank you guys! Third appearance for me and Guenther here in VOLO Magazine!

Enjoy this editorial we shot in a hotel. I remember these autumn days with the reduced light of the pale autumn sun. I remember the cold temperatures outside and the cosy warmth of the hotel room, which created a very sensual atmosphere, just perfect for our editorial. Me lingering in the homely chair, in bed with nothing but my sheer skin in front of the camera felt contemplative, meditative, sensual and sexy at the same time.

I am proud of being part of VOLO again and hope you really appreciate our editorial. Stay tuned for further pictures and feel free to visit my Facebook page www.facebook.com/model.zoe

Thanks in advance for your love, feedback, likes and comments for my pics.

Kisses from Austria,
ZoÈ

GUENTHER ACHLEITNER

FREELANCE PHOTOGRAPHER from AUSTRIA

Freelance photographer Guenther Achleitner is a enthusiastic self-taught artist.

Guenther used to shoot pictures in the 1990's but took a decade long break from photography to pursue politics. Guenther has been Vice-Mayor of his home city Puchenu - Austria. He walked out of politics in 2012 to develop his career as a professional photographer. Since then he is living his dream through his pictures. The brand-name of his enterprise EIKONAS is (ancient) greek and means (high quality) pictures.

His portrayal of nudes is full of respect and appreciation for his models. Beauty cannot be discovered by simply exhibiting objects without clothes but by connecting with the subject, with the partner on the other side of his lens. Therefore Guenther's models are always shown as proud and beautiful individuals.

Guenther's understanding of beauty is based upon his appreciation for genuineness and simplicity, of immediacy and truthfulness of the simple being as an aesthetic and self-confident individual. The beauty and eroticism of his models emerges in the magic of sensual, often excited and soul-revealing moments.

His photographic style can be defined as sensual, soft and natural. He loves to play with the available light, with a narrow focus and with lights and shadows as well. Most important to him is staying free in his creative process, he is always learning and trying to develop his skills in order to create captivating moments of the essence of female beauty, we all are longing for.

Hi VOLO reader, I am Teddy Marks, a VOLO photographer from Düsseldorf, Germany. I love VOLO and this is my second appearance in the magazine.

Just about three years ago I resurrected my passion for photography again after a long break. Since then, amazing things have happened. The beauty of this world, this life! It is so precious and unique. With a picture we take a short moment home and preserve it forever in our hearts and souls and then, eventually share this moment with other people around the world.

Passion for love, art and photography, My life is a teddycation (*dedication) to art, life, love and the female form.

MELISSA JEAN

Hi everyone, I'm a full time traveling model based out of NYC. I've had a couple of international Playboy covers and have appeared in VOLO magazine once before. I also have features in many other magazines. I did a posing book with Playboy's legendary photographer Arny Freytag.

My specialties are glamour, art, and fashion nudes but I do a lot of beauty and portrait work as well. I just shot with Holly Randall for Playboy online which will be out soon! I am always looking to shoot with different kinds of photographers. This is my second time shooting with Shantia for Volo. I absolutely love her work and I love working with female models who are also photographers!

SHANTIA VENEY

PHOTOGRAPHER/MODEL from USA

Shantia (Shaun Tia) is a professional traveling model and photographer based out of Phoenix, Arizona. She is a natural redhead, pale and freckled with a passion for art and learning. She started modeling five years ago while attending Le Cordon Bleu in Scottsdale. Despite the a chorus of voices telling her she could not be a model, that she was not right for one reason or another, Shaun Tia relentlessly pursued her passion to become one of the most prolific creative talents. Her expressiveness along with her unique charisma is attracting an ever growing audience of art lovers and fans.

She has expanded her love of modeling into her photography as well as video and her own photo book that features artists from all over the world.

Her photography is an exploration of natural light, color and sensuality. You'll see textures such as lace, crocheted tops, sweaters and socks paired with the rim light off an incredible woman's dimples of Venus. Shaun Tia aims to capture more than just a beautiful, sexy woman, but also emotions mixed with a bit of voyeurism.

NICOLETTE REITERMAYR

"It was when I was on vacation with my wife that the island of Lanzarote captured me with its charm and beautiful landscape; The steep rocks, the blue sea, spray and the fascinating black lava rocks. I soon realized that this would be the perfect setting to have a beautiful dark-haired and light-skinned model posing for me for creating breathtaking photographs. One year later, my perfect model Nicolette joined me for this VOLO Vacation and, together with some 120 lbs. of camera equipment, we set out to take top-quality pictures that would meet my high standards.

As a photographer, I always work alone and don't have the luxury of a team behind me. So, it was a major challenge to cope with the permanent wind that I used to find to be very pleasant when I was there on vacation the year before :) Many spectators passed by our locations and were absolutely enthralled and tolerant. When a couple of policemen showed up at our set, they admonished us with a wink to refrain from shooting nude photographs in public... LOL!

Despite all unfavorable weather-related conditions Nicolette helped me to translate my ideas for the shooting into action and the publishing of my photos in VOLO now puts a cherry on the cake!

Hope you enjoy our vacation almost as much as we did."

Kristian

KRISTIAN PODREPSEK

PHOTOGRAPHER from AUSTRIA

I live in Graz/Austria and to be able to afford my vocation as nude photographer, I work as a technician for a major machine manufacturer in the area,

It all began back in 2007 when I bought a digital camera and two lenses simply to try take some images. In 2008, I fitted out my own small studio where I am taking practically all of my indoor photography.

From the very beginning on my work focused on nude photography, preferably high-contrast studio shots in black and white. Even if my pictures do not suggest it, but most of them are framed and planned right down to the last detail! I keep investing a lot of time especially in lighting.

I'm convert my studio for every new scene which sometimes means a lot of work. Spending 10 - 14 hours on the set is quite normal and the outcome is about a maximum of 10 different pictures that meet my expectations. As a photographer, it is my belief that a good photo is created in the camera and it is just fine-tuning that should be done on the computer.

At this point, I also would like to point out that these very time-consuming activities and the resulting success would not be possible without my very tolerant and understanding partner Elis!

The series of photos made in Lanzarote and the fact that they are now published in VOLO are an absolute highlight to me, and I hope that there will be a lot more to come.

Alexandra Eipper is 20 years old and lives in Nürnberg Germany. She is an exotic mix of an American father and an Indian mother.

She started modelling just 3 years ago. But in this short time Lexy is already becoming famous as glamour and lingerie model all across Europe. She loves photo shoots and showing her body. Her biggest goal is to be published in international magazines and about 2 years ago VOLO discovered her incredible face through Martin Siebenbrunner our Austrian photographer.

Her first glamour shoot was with Martin in Vienna in 2013. She was an amateur who had the looks to be an international supermodel. She needed a lot of help posing and defining her expressions but she was determined to get better. 14 days later, she was back in Vienna eager to show Martin what she had practiced, and the VOLO Body set for VOLO #11 was created and Lexy the model was born.

Now she is an accomplished model with her second appearance in VOLO.

Dear VOLO'nians,

My name is Sacha Leyendecker and I'm a freelance photographer based near cologne. Next to my work as a commercial and lifestyle photographer I follow my passion for nude artwork and sensual photography. Supported by my wife and make-up artist Monika I love to capture the beauty of amazing models.

About three years ago at the age of 32 I started to be interested in photography. Based on an education at a classic photo studio, I started to study photography at the "Academy of photography cologne" in 2012. Soon I felt there must be more than what I've done so far and I started to experience with my first modelshoots.

Today I'm glad and thankful to work with the most beautiful women in business, publishing my work in calenders and magazines like VOLO. Always trying to improve my skills and push my work to the next level.
